

RESOURCES TO SUPPORT INTERN SKILL BUILDING TECHNOLOGY

Is there a particular skill that they need to learn to complete a task? Does your intern have extra time to learn a skill that increases productivity and hirability? Below is a list of free resources that may be used to help your intern build skills in using computer technology.

BEGINNER RESOURCES

GCFGlobal (formerly GCFLearnfree.org)

<https://edu.gcfglobal.org/en/topics/>

Step by step instruction and YouTube videos for beginners, covering the foundations of:

- Computer Basics (hardware, software, web browsing, cloud computing and cybersecurity)
- Email
- Microsoft Word
- Microsoft Excel
- Microsoft PowerPoint

INTERMEDIATE/ADVANCED RESOURCES

Coursera

<https://www.coursera.org/search?query=free&>

Multiple subjects available for free on business, computer science, data science and information technology

Khan Academy

<https://www.khanacademy.org/>

Variety of STEM learning including Computer Programming and Computer Science

freeCodeCamp.org

<https://www.freecodecamp.org/learn/>

All things coding!